ABOUT MEDIATEGURU

In the era of emerging legal disputes due to high population which within its purview has different demographics, not all people can afford the high cost of going to court to seek justice or wait for years to get justice at the constant burden to monetary terms and time. Here we come to assist you.

We intent to bridge the gap between the classes in a community and the mediators, provide a linkage between the same with an aim to provide social awareness.

Apart from this, we all organize various conferences, webinars, competitions.

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE IN A MEDIATION COMPETITION?

Words of Wisdom from our Advisors, Mediation Experts and Alumni's of 1st VIMC'21

Dr. Ashu Dhiman
(Academician, Chief Advisor)

"Participating in a mediation competition makes you develop the skills like effective listening, communication, finding commercially viable solutions, teamwork, understanding human psychology etc"

Ms. Kathleen Leedy
(Mediator, Advisor)

"I encourage all law students to participate in mediation competitions to hone their ADR skills, network with others students across the globe, and meet judges who are already in the field. Mediation tournaments also captures the pressure of the mediation table and pressure begets diamonds!"

Ms. Reshma Oogorah
(Arbitrator Advisor)

"Mediation can be a powerful vehicle to reinstate a declining business relationship while avoiding the usually higher costs, time and stress of adversarial methods of conflict resolution."

Ms. Maureen
Robershaw
(Mediator, Advisor)

"This is a golden opportunity for students to sharpen and hone their mediation skills as well as make connections with established mediators and fellow students of mediation. Students will also receive personal feedback on their performances. This tournament is perfect for first time participants as well as seasoned competitors."

Dr. Astha Mehta
(Asst. Prof. at Sushant University)

Mediation Competitions are a potential opportunity to gain practical insight into how mediation works. There are certain skills required when you have to facilitate the parties to arrive at a settlement beneficial to both. These competitions will surely enhance your skills.

Mr. Pascal Comvalius
(Criminal Mediator, 1st
VIMC'21 Judge)

Participating is essential to develop yourself. Not only by observing other participants, digesting feedback from expert assessors or following workshops but from being aware how you behave yourself and want to be treated and work together to find a solution to the problem presented. A global event which will blow your mind, satisfy your soul, puts a smile on your face and will be rewarded with getting to know people from around the globe.

Ms. Diana Lokajíčková
(Mediator, Advisor)

"If you head to the competition, follow the rule of "three C" - compete, connect, cut to the chase" :)

Ms. Federica Simonelli,
(Italian Civil and Commercial mediator)

"Preparing for a precious international mediation competition has taught me invaluable interpersonal and negotiation skills, along with team building opportunities. When you negotiate you learn how to manage language, body posture and emotions well before the legal content of your message. There is no impasse that cannot be overcome and you'll learn soft skills essential to any profession. ADR play an essential role in today's world and an experience like this will turn your academic and professional world upside down, for the better."

Mr. Pallav
Bhargava
(Mediator, Alumni of 1st VIMC'21)

"Mediation competitions are the best way to experience ADR. Students should participate in them to gain valuable skills of the field, the way it's practised in practicality."

"Mediation is not just a competition, but a life skill that aids us to pacify our and our fellows' mutual interest. My mantra has always been - Do compete but definitely engage in mediation competition to expand my horizons."

Mr. Tanmay Malik

*(Student, B.A. LL.B.
(Hons.) at NALSAR
University of Law,
Hyderabad. Best Mediator at 1st VIMC.)*
